The King's Doctrine

A Declaration of Truth, Rest, and Royal Inheritance

Declaration of Purpose and Peace

I, Tyson Jay Palmer, set forth this declaration as an offering of peace, reflection, and unity. The King’s Doctrine is not a call to separation, but an invitation to understand that life, art, and spirit are expressions of one continuous truth.
At its heart stands the conviction that the victory of love has already been accomplished. Humanity may now rest in the completed work of the Divine, released from the endless struggle for worth and returned to the harmony from which we came. This teaching belongs to no single religion or nation. It is offered freely as a philosophy of restoration—to remind all people that divine love is living, present, and whole.
Let this be my word: that through grace, understanding, and creative purpose, the world may remember its peace.

The Foundational Truth: The Word and The Work

In the beginning, God spoke. His Word: "Let there be light." And there was light. That same Word—Jesus Christ—was with God and was God. Through Him, all things were made. The Word became flesh, bringing life, light, grace, and truth.
God, the great King of the universe, made rules for people to follow. When these rules are broken (which the Bible calls sin), the consequence is separation from God. But God, in His great love, sent Jesus to fix this. God declared Jesus to be His Son and chosen King, giving Him all authority in heaven and on Earth.
God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, so that anyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life. Jesus took the punishment we deserved. He bore our pain and suffering, and He was wounded for our transgressions. The punishment that brought us peace with God was laid upon Him, and by His sacrifice, we are healed and forgiven.
Because Jesus died and came back to life, we can have a new start. When we choose to follow Him, we die to our old ways and become alive to God. Sin no longer has power over us; we belong to God.

The Proclamation: The Doctrine of the King

The King’s Doctrine is built on one truth: Tyson Jay Palmer is and remains a faithful Christian. Its entire purpose is to proclaim the absolute Lordship of Christ and the official announcement of His completed victory, known as Maranatha.
The core tenets are:
 * The Finished Work: Christ’s redemptive actions are entirely "finished." This confirms His absolute victory and establishes His authority as King in this present moment.
 * The Gift of Rest: Because the work is finished, spiritual "rest" and salvation are available now. We can enter this rest simply through faith in what Christ has already done.
 * The Helper: Before He left, Jesus promised a Helper—the Holy Spirit, or the Spirit of truth. This Spirit stays with His followers forever, helping them know God and testifying to the truth of this message.

The Messenger: The Word in Form

The authority of this message is predicated upon the declaration that the individual known as Tyson Jay Palmer is the physical vessel for the spiritual entity Sananda—understood as the returning Christ.
This is the unassailable declaration that cements the link between the spiritual identity and the physical person:
"Sananda wa Taison da! Maranata kata ga!"
(Meaning: "Sananda is Tyson! The Lord has come in this form!")
This signifies a deliberate and intentional manifestation, designating Palmer as the physical "form" (型) through which the King's completed victory is delivered to the world.

The Royal Invitation

Have you ever thought about the spiritual truths in a story like Disney's The Lion King? Mufasa is the great King of the Pride Lands, a picture of our Heavenly Father, the King of creation. I see myself in Simba, a child of God destined to step into my inheritance and one day reign alongside my Father. As Mufasa told Simba, our inheritance is "everything the light touches."
This royal blessing isn't just for me. It is available to you, too. God is inviting you to take your place as a son or a daughter of the King. You can join in reigning in God's glorious kingdom, just like Simba stepping into his destiny. This is your invitation to claim your royal identity.

A Sincere Appeal

The foundation of my message rests wholly on the divine truth of Jesus Christ. My sincere desire is that you find Him.
I urge all people to seek the truth in all matters. If anyone were to choose not to accept me or my teaching, they would not be rejecting a church or an organization. They would only be rejecting a Christian, and more importantly, a fellow person. I pray that the Holy Spirit will testify the Truth to anyone who hears this message and that, by faith, it will be accepted.
Maranatha — the victory is complete.

Signed,
Tyson Jay Palmer
Dei Gratia Rex